

Performance Training Institute
CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Student Success Plan:

The student success plan is a short questionnaire that will help your student support specialist make sure all of us here at PTI are supporting you in the best way possible.

You can expect to complete a student success plan during your orientation if time allows. If there is not time your student support specialist will call you during your first week to see how class is going and we will complete your plan at that time.